Part I

Meet little Rapunzel. She is kind and nice. She has got big blue eyes. Her hair is fair. It is very, very long. Rapunzel lives in a tall tower, and she cannot go out. A witch has put<sup>2</sup> her in there. Rapunzel's parents are sad: they cannot see their daughter. They love her a lot, but they cannot help her.

The witch is very bad. She has got a big head with big ears and a big nose. Her eyes are small and angry. Her hair is long and dark. She has got short legs and arms, but her hands and feet are very big. She comes to the tower in the morning.

Witch: Good morning, Rapunzel. How are you?

Rapunzel: I am fine, thanks. And how are you?

Witch: Not bad. Can you help me?

Rapunzel: Yes, I can.

Witch: Let down your hair.

Rapunzel: Here you are.

Rapunzel lets down her hair, and the witch comes up. Then she lets down her hair and the witch goes down.

Prince: Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your hair.

Rapunzel: Here you are.

Prince: Thank you. You are so kind.

Rapunzel: Oh, no! Who are you?

Prince: I am a prince. I want to be your friend.

Rapunzel: Really? It is great.

Rapunzel and the Prince are good friends now. The Prince comes to see her in the afternoon. They talk a lot. They sing and dance. They are very happy.

One morning the witch comes to the tower, and Rapunzel helps her come up.

Rapunzel: Oh, you are very big. The young Prince is not so big.

Witch: What? Does the Prince visit you?

Rapunzel: Yes, he does. I am sorry.

Witch: Naughty girl! Say good-bye to your hair.

The witch is angry. She cuts Rapunzel's hair. Then she takes the girl to the forest.

In the afternoon the Prince comes to the tower.
Prince: Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your hair.
Witch: Here you are.
Prince: Oh, no. Who are you?
Witch: I am a witch. Ha-ha-ha.

The Prince jumps out of the tower. He runs to the forest. His eyes are very bad now, he cannot see well. The Prince looks for Rapunzel, but she is not there. One evening he hears a nice song.

Prince: Rapunzel, is that you?

Rapunzel: Yes, it is me, my Prince.

Snow White

Part I

This is a story about a lovely girl. Her hair is black. Her face is as white as snow<sup>1</sup>. Her name is Snow White. She lives with her father and her stepmother, the Queen. The Queen has got a magic mirror. She likes to look in it and talk to it.

Queen: Mirror, mirror, on the wall,
Who is the fairest of all<sup>2</sup>?

Mirror: You are the fairest of all.

The Queen is happy. But one morning she goes to the mirror and asks:

Queen: Mirror, mirror, on the wall,
Who is the fairest of all?

Mirror: Snow White's the fairest of all.

Queen: What? Oh, no! I am so angry! Hunter!

Hunter: Yes, my Queen.

Queen: Take Snow White to the forest and kill her.
I don't want to see her.

Hunter: Yes, my Queen.

<sup>2</sup> the fairest of all – самая красивая из всех

The Hunter takes Snow White to the forest.

Hunter: I can't kill you. I am sorry for you.

Snow White: Oh, thank you. You are so kind. Good-bye.

In the forest there is a little house. Snow White opens the door and goes in. In the kitchen there is a small table and seven little chairs. In the bedroom there are seven little beds.

Snow White: What a funny house! Who lives here?

Snow White looks around and goes to bed. At night seven dwarfs come home.

Dwarf 1: Look! Who is that?

Dwarf 2: I have no idea, but she is so lovely!

Dwarf 3: What is your name?

Snow White: My name is Snow White. I want to live here.

Dwarf 4: Can you help us around the house<sup>1</sup>?

Part II

Snow White lives in the little house and helps the dwarfs. In the morning they go to the forest, and in the evening they come home.

Dwarfs: Close the door and don't open it! Good-bye.

Snow White: Of course, my friends. Bye-bye.

The Queen talks to the mirror at her house.

Queen: Mirror, mirror, on the wall,
Who is the fairest of all?

Mirror: Snow White's the fairest of all.

The Queen is very angry. She paints her face. Now she looks old. The Queen takes apples and goes to the forest. She stops in front of the house. Snow White looks out of the window.

Queen: Good morning. Open the door, please.

Snow White: Good morning. Who is that?

Queen: Oh, my daughter, I am an old woman.

Snow White: I am sorry, but I can't open the door.

Queen: Look! I can give you a nice apple.

Snow White eats the apple and falls asleep. The Queen is happy. She is the fairest now. She goes away. In the evening the dwarfs come home. They are very sad. They put Snow White in a big glass box. One morning a prince comes there.

Prince: This girl is so lovely. I want to take her with me.

He takes up the glass box, and Snow White opens her eyes.

Snow White: Where am I? And who are you?

Prince: You are here, with your friends. I am a prince.

Snow White: Oh, nice to meet you, Prince.

Prince: Nice to meet you, too, Snow White.

Pinocchio Goes to School

This is Geppetto. He lives in Italy. He is old and he has no family. There is only one table, one chair and one bed in his small room.

Today is Sunday and Geppetto is at home. He is making a puppet. Geppetto makes a face with two eyes, a little nose and a big mouth. Then Geppetto makes two arms, two hands, two legs and two feet. And here's Pinocchio — a wooden boy.

“Look!” says Pinocchio. “I can talk! I can jump! I can run!”

“Oh! You are a naughty little boy!” says Geppetto. “All boys and girls go to school. Do you want to go to school?”

“Great!” says Pinocchio. “It’s a good idea!”

On Monday Geppetto gives Pinocchio a book and says, “Be good, my little boy!” So Pinocchio takes the book and goes to school on foot. He sees big and small houses, boys and girls, cats and dogs. He likes what he sees.

“Oh, nice music is playing!” says Pinocchio. “It’s exciting. I want to go and see where it’s coming from.” The music is coming from a puppet show. The puppets are kind and nice. They invite Pinocchio to join their show.

But the puppet master is very angry. At first<sup>1</sup>, he doesn’t like the wooden boy. But then he lets him dance with the other puppets and gives Pinocchio five coins for Geppetto.

- 1 Find the meaning of these words in the dictionary.

enormous	a garden
a turnip	to pull (up)
to plant	a woman

- 2 Read the tale "The Enormous Turnip" and say who helped the old man pull it up.

The Enormous Turnip

(A Folk Tale)

This is an old man who likes vegetables. He plants cucumbers, tomatoes, potatoes and turnips in his garden.

One morning he sees an enormous turnip there. "This is a fine turnip," he says. The old man wants to pull it up. He pulls, and pulls, and pulls, and he pulls with all his might<sup>1</sup>. But he can't pull up the enormous turnip!

<sup>1</sup> with all his might [maɪt] —
из всех сил

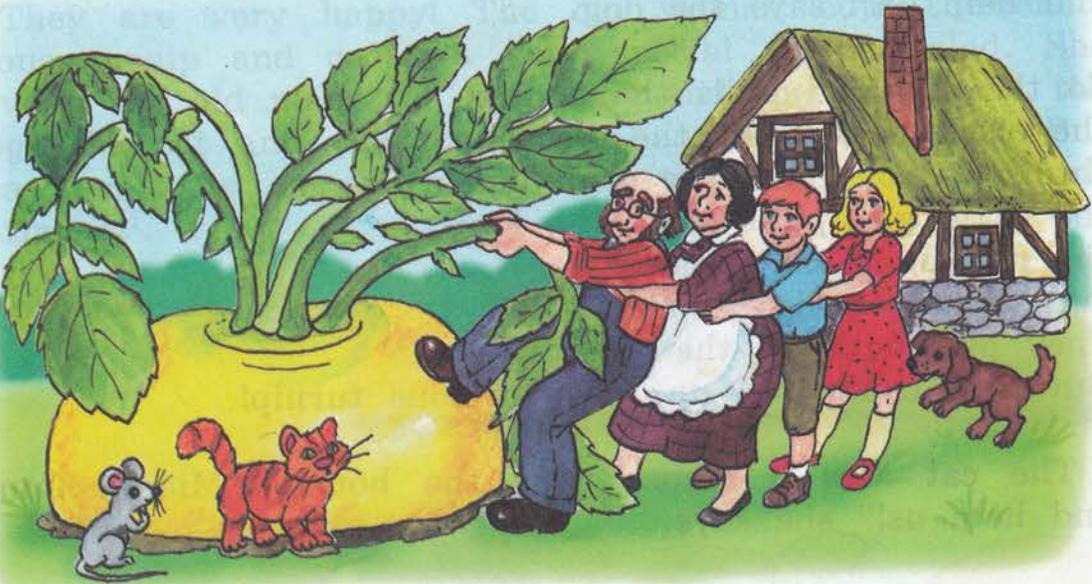

The old man says to his wife, "Can you help me, please?" So the old man pulls the turnip and the old woman pulls the old man. They pull with all their might. But they can't pull up the enormous turnip!

The old woman says to a little boy: "Can you help us, please?" So the old man pulls the turnip, the old woman pulls the old man and the little boy pulls the old woman. They pull with all their might. But they can't pull up the enormous turnip!

The little boy sees a little girl with a dog near the garden. He asks her to help them. So the old man pulls the turnip, the old woman pulls the old man, the little boy pulls the old woman and the little girl pulls the little boy. They pull with all their might. But they can't pull up the enormous turnip!

The little girl asks her dog to help them.
So the old man pulls the turnip,
the old woman pulls the old man,
the little boy pulls the old woman,
the little girl pulls the little boy
and the dog pulls the little girl.
They pull with all their might.
But they can't pull up the enormous turnip!

There is a funny red cat in the garden. "Woof! Come and help us!" says the dog.

So the old man pulls the turnip.
the old woman pulls the old man,
the little boy pulls the old woman,
the little girl pulls the little boy,
the dog pulls the little girl
and the cat pulls the dog.
They pull with all their might.
But they can't pull up the enormous turnip!

The cat sees a mouse near the house. "Miaow! Come and help us!" she says.

So the old man pulls the turnip,
the old woman pulls the old man,
the little boy pulls the old woman,
the little girl pulls the little boy,
the dog pulls the little girl,
the cat pulls the dog
and the mouse pulls the cat.
They pull with all their might.
And they pull up the enormous turnip!

They are very happy! The old woman cuts the enormous turnip and cooks a very special turnip salad. She invites the old man, the little boy and the little girl, the dog, the cat and the little mouse to eat the salad. But the turnip is so enormous that they still can't finish eating it<sup>1</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> they still can't finish eating it. — они всё ещё не могут её съесть.

3 Put the sentences in the right order and read them.

1. The old woman cuts the enormous turnip and cooks a very special turnip salad.
2. The old woman says to a little boy: "Can you help us, please?"
3. One morning the old man sees an enormous turnip in his garden.
4. This is an old man who plants vegetables in his garden.
5. So the old man pulls the turnip, the old woman pulls the old man, the little boy pulls the old woman and the little girl pulls the little boy.
6. And they pull up the enormous turnip!

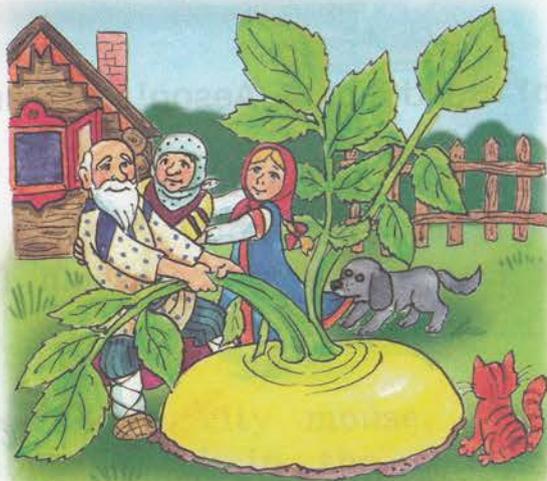

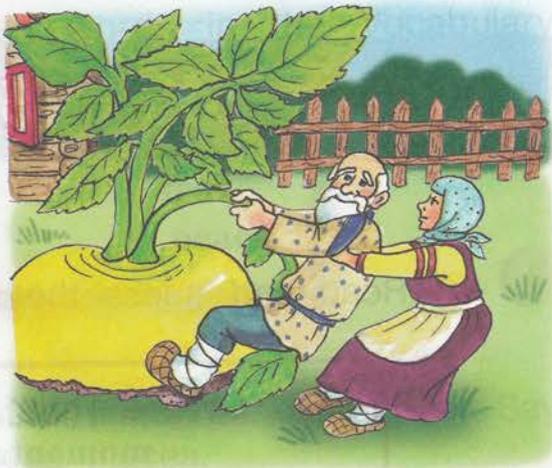

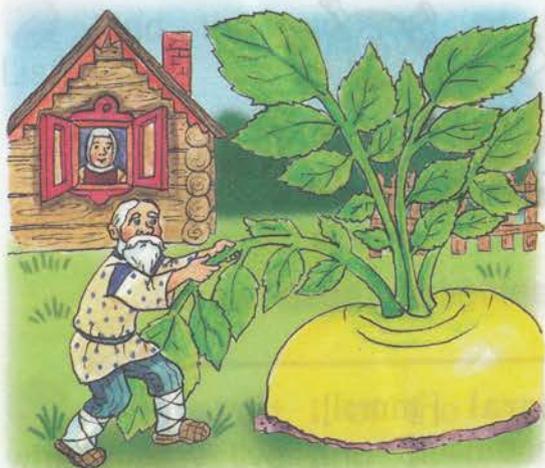

4 Right or wrong? Read and say.

- This is an old man who likes fruit.
- The turnip is very small.
- The old man pulls the turnip with all his might.
- The old woman asks a little girl to help them pull up the turnip.
- The turnip salad is very tasty.

5 Answer the questions:

- What does the old man plant in his garden?
- What does the old man want to pull up?
- Can he pull up the turnip?
- Does the girl ask a dog to help them?
- Does the cat ask a mouse to help them?
- What does the old woman make from the turnip?

There was a country mouse and a city mouse. They were sisters. The country mouse lived in the country and was happy there. There was a forest and a river near her home. The nature was lovely there. The city mouse lived in a big city. She liked her home very much, too.

One day the city mouse visited her sister. The country mouse was happy. She wanted to celebrate. She cooked some food for her sister.

City Mouse: I like it here, but your food is simple, and your home is not so lovely.

Country Mouse: Do you really think so?

City Mouse: Yes, I do. Come to the city and live with me.

Country Mouse: Oh, it is a good idea. Let's go.

The two sisters went<sup>1</sup> to the city. It was big and nice, but not very clean. There were a lot of people. The air was dirty and there was a lot of rubbish, but it was no problem. The people liked to throw rubbish, and the sisters liked to eat it: there was some tasty food in it.

Country Mouse: But where are the animals?

City Mouse: What animals?

Country Mouse: Horses, chickens, birds? I can't see them.

City Mouse: Ha-ha-ha! Don't be funny! You are not in the country; you are in a big city.

Country Mouse: So we are the big animals here, right?

Part II

The sisters went to a tall house. The city mouse opened a little door in the wall and the sisters walked in. The house was lovely, with a big living room and a nice kitchen. The sisters jumped on the table. There was a lot of tasty food there. Fruit, vegetables, cakes – all were there, in front of them. Some clean water was there, too.

The sisters were hungry and thirsty. They started to eat and drink. They were very happy. The country mouse wanted to live in that house. It was so exciting!

At that moment the door opened. People walked in and — oh, no! — a big angry animal with a long tail, too. It said<sup>1</sup>, “Miaow”, and jumped into a big armchair. The sisters jumped under the table and into their small home in the wall.

Country Mouse: Who was that?

City Mouse: Oh, those were people with their cat.

Country Mouse: Do they live in the house too?

City Mouse: Of course, they do.

Country Mouse: Can they protect us from the cat?

City Mouse: The people? Ha-ha-ha! No, they don't like us. They want to kill us.

Country Mouse: Good-bye, sister. I am going back to the country.

City Mouse: Why? What is the problem?

Country Mouse: I don't want to live in fear. Nature is not so exciting, but I can live in peace there.

City Mouse: And how about the food?

Country Mouse: Your food is great, but you eat it in fear. My food is simple, but I eat it in peace. Bye-bye.

Goldilocks and the Three Bears

(A Folk Tale)

Once upon a time<sup>2</sup> there were three bears: Father Bear, Mother Bear and Baby Bear. They lived in a nice little house in the forest.

Every morning they had porridge for breakfast. Father Bear had the biggest bowl. Mother Bear had a smaller bowl and Baby Bear had the smallest bowl.

One morning the porridge was very hot. "Let's go to the forest and let it cool off<sup>3</sup>", said Mother Bear. "It's a good idea!" said Father Bear and they went for a walk.

At that time a little girl came to their house. Her name was Goldilocks because she had long fair hair. She got lost in the forest and was very sad and hungry. The girl saw the three bears' house and was very happy. The door was open and Goldilocks went in. There were no bears in the living room. But on the table there were three bowls with porridge. Goldilocks sat on the biggest chair and ate some porridge from the biggest bowl. "Oh, the porridge is very hot and the chair is very hard", she said. Goldilocks sat on the smaller chair and ate some porridge from the smaller bowl. "Well, the porridge is very cold and the chair is very soft", said the girl. Then Goldilocks sat on the smallest chair and ate from the smallest bowl. "Fine, the porridge is very tasty and the chair is very nice!" she said. But Baby Bear's chair broke because Goldilocks was too big for it.

The girl went to the bedroom. There were three beds there. The biggest bed was very hard. The smaller bed was very soft. And the smallest bed was lovely! Goldilocks fell asleep in Baby Bear's bed.

At that time the three bears came back home. Father Bear looked at his chair and at his bowl and said: "Who has been sitting<sup>1</sup> on my chair? Who has been eating my porridge?" Mother Bear looked at her chair and at her bowl and said: "Who has been sitting on my chair? Who has been eating my porridge?"

And Baby Bear looked at his little chair and at his small bowl and said: "Who has broken my chair and has eaten all my porridge?"

The three bears went to the bedroom and saw the girl in Baby Bear's bed. "Who is sleeping in my bed?" asked Baby Bear. "Look! Here's a naughty girl! She has eaten my porridge and she has broken my chair".

When Goldilocks opened her eyes and saw the three bears, she jumped out of the bed and ran away to the forest.

The Wizard of Oz

Part I

Once there was a little girl. Her name was Dorothy. She lived in Kansas, in America, with her family and her favourite dog Toto. One day when only Dorothy and Toto were at home a storm carried the house away to a strange country.

"Where am I?" said Dorothy as she looked around. "You are in the Land of Oz. Thank you for killing the Wicked Witch of the East. Look, she is under your house now. Her shoes are magic. You can take them", said a little woman. "Thank you", said the girl and put the shoes on.

"My name is Dorothy", she said. "Who are you?" "I'm the Good Witch of the North." As<sup>1</sup> Dorothy wanted to go home she asked, "How can I get back to Kansas?" "Go and see the Wizard of Oz in the Emerald City", said the Good Witch. And Dorothy and Toto went there.

On the way they met a Scarecrow, a Tin Woodman and a Lion. They went to the Wizard of Oz together with Dorothy. The Scarecrow wanted to be clever and he wanted to ask the Wizard for a brain, the Tin Woodman — for a heart as he wanted to be kind and the Lion for some courage. Soon they were all good friends.

When they came to the Emerald City, a little green man gave all of them green glasses and took them to the palace. There Dorothy came into the throne room and saw an enormous bald head without a body and without arms or legs on a large green throne. But the head had eyes, a nose and a mouth.

“I’m the greatest Wizard”, said the head. “Who are you?” “I’m Dorothy, and I’d like to go home to Kansas, please”. “Before you go back to Kansas go and kill the Wicked Witch of the West”, said the Wizard. “Then you’ll have your wish”.

6 Find in the text and read out loud:

- how Dorothy got to a strange country;
- how she got the magic shoes;
- whom Dorothy and Toto met in that country;
- what Dorothy saw in the throne room in the palace.

7 Put the sentences in the right order and read them.

1. "I'm the Good Witch of the North".
2. "Go and see the Wizard of Oz in the Emerald City".
3. Dorothy lived in Kansas, in America, with her family and her favourite dog Toto.
4. "How can I get back to Kansas?"
5. Dorothy came into the throne room and saw an enormous bald head on a large green throne.

8 Answer the questions.

1. What is the name of the strange country?
2. Why did Dorothy and Toto go to the Emerald City?
3. What did the Scarecrow, the Tin Woodman and the Lion want to ask the Wizard for?
4. What did the Wizard of Oz say when Dorothy asked him for her wish?

9 Act out the conversation between (между) Dorothy and the Good Witch of the North.

The Wizard of Oz

Part II

One by one Dorothy's friends came into the throne room and saw the Wizard in a different shape. The Scarecrow saw a lovely Lady sitting on the emerald throne. She had a silk green dress on. There was a crown on her head and two beautiful wings on her back. It was exciting and great fun. The Tin Woodman saw a terrible animal. It was very big and had a head with five eyes. There were five long arms and five long legs growing out of its body. The Lion was surprised to see that before the throne there was a Ball of Fire<sup>1</sup>. It was very hot. But the Wizard's answer was the same<sup>2</sup>: "Go and kill the Wicked Witch of the West". So they all went to look for her.

The Wicked Witch of the West knew that Dorothy and her friends were going to kill her and sent<sup>1</sup> some wolves to meet them. But the magic shoes protected Dorothy. When she saw the Witch she threw water all over her and it killed the Wicked Witch of the West.

Dorothy and her friends got back to the Emerald City, but they didn't see the Wizard in the throne room. They found him behind a screen in one of the small rooms. He was a little old man and looked very frightened. The man wasn't a real wizard at all! He was a humbug. But he was kind and helped Dorothy's friends. First he put some sawdust into the Scarecrow's head. "Now you've got a brain", he said. Then he put a silk heart inside the Tin Woodman and gave the Lion some green medicine to give him some courage. They all were very happy.

“That wasn’t magic”, thought the little man. “They were clever, kind and brave. They just didn’t know it”. Only Dorothy didn’t have her wish. The Good Witch of the South helped her. “You’ve got magic shoes. Tell them where you want to go and they’ll take you there”, she said to Dorothy. The girl said ‘goodbye’ to her friends and she and Toto were back to Kansas in a moment.

3 Find in the text and read out loud:

- what Dorothy’s friends saw in the throne room;
- what protected Dorothy from the Wicked Witch of the West;
- how Dorothy killed the Witch;
- what the little man thought about Dorothy’s friends.

4 Right or wrong. Read and say. Correct the wrong sentences.

1. “Go and kill the Wicked Witch of the West”, said the wizard.
2. The Wicked Witch of the West sent some dogs to meet Dorothy and her friends.
3. When Dorothy and her friends got back to the Emerald City, the Wizard of Oz was in the throne room.
4. The Wizard of Oz wasn’t a real wizard at all! He was a little old man and looked very frightened.
5. Dorothy and her friends got their wishes.

5 Answer the questions.

1. Was it exiting and great fun to see the Wizard in a different shape?
2. Whom did Dorothy find behind a screen in one of the small rooms of the palace?

3. Why was the little man frightened?
4. How did he help the Scarecrow, the Tin Woodman and the Lion?
5. How did Dorothy get her wish? Who helped her?
6. Speak about the little old man. Use the model and the words in the box.

The little old man was (frightened) because...

wasn't a real wizard at all, was afraid of...,
