The Sweet Shop Song

15 Listen and sing.

I've got a great big packet of peppermints
And a great big jar of jam.
I've got a great big bottle of sunshine –
My name's 'Sweet Shop Sam'!

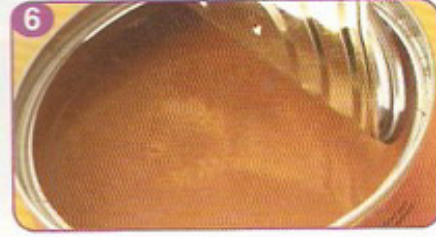

Sweet Shop Sam, Sweet Shop Sam –
He's our friendly Sweet Shop man!

I've got a great big piece of banana cake
And some great big worms in a can.
I've got a great big bag of spiders –
My name's 'Sweet Shop Sam'!

Sweet Shop Sam, Sweet Shop Sam –
He's our friendly Sweet Shop man!

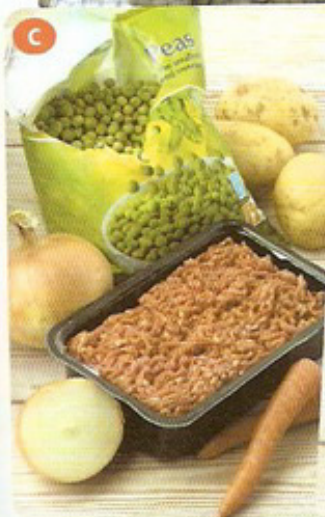

● Look and say. What is it?

I love cooking!
Here are two of my favourite dishes.

Read and match.

1 'Shepherd's Pie' is a popular British dish. You need meat, onions and mashed potatoes for it. It sometimes has peas and carrots in it too.

2 We have sweet dishes in Britain too. 'Apple Crumble' is my favourite. It has apples and sugar under the 'crumble'. You need flour, butter and sugar for the 'crumble'. It's delicious!

Here's my easy recipe for CRUMBLE.

- 1 Put 225 grams of flour into a bowl.
- 2 Put in 75 grams of soft butter. Mix the flour and butter together with your fingers.
- 3 Now put 100 grams of brown sugar into the bowl and mix it with your fingers again.
- 4 Put the crumble mixture on cooked apples and cook it at 180°C for 35 minutes.

YANKEE STADIUM

Twenty minutes later.

They're going into that hotel, Pluto.

Hey! That's Doctor Rotter - he's going into the hotel! Is he staying here?

I dunno. Let's ask him ...

Are you staying in this hotel, Doctor?

Yes, I am. I'm staying here for three days.

Are you working in New York, Doc?

I'm planning an important experiment ... for my research.

We're visiting our auntie here.

Yeah, our auntie ... er ... it's her birthday ...

Powder ... and an important experiment ... Mmm. So what is Dr Rotter's 'research' this time? Let's watch him carefully, Pluto.

That evening.

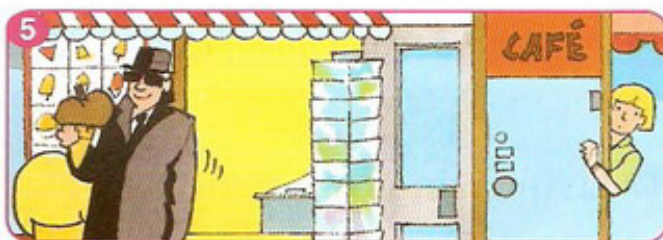

We're standing across the street from their hotel, Poppy ... Wait! Doctor Rotter is coming out of the hotel! Maybe he's going to a secret meeting!

At the stadium.

It's a false alarm, Pluto - he's only watching a baseball game!

It's Frankie again!

● Listen, sing and dance.

What can you do ...
 If you're feeling sad and blue?
 If you're feeling all unhappy
 And you don't know what to do?

Well now, listen. Here's my advice ...
 You can skip out of your corner,
 You can dance across the room,
 You can spin round and round,
 And then dance back again!

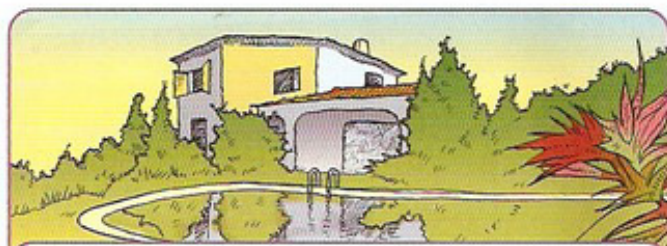

Just skip out of your corner,
 Dance across the room,
 Spin round and round
 And dance back again!

THE COMPETITION AND THE PRIZE

Good morning, Captain. Please wake up. I've got some information about the golden cockatoo!

OK, OK, Luke. What's the news?

Here it is, Captain. It's a message from the San Francisco Bird Club, in California ...

COMPETITION

The San Francisco Bird Club is having a competition to find a Golden Cockatoo.

We are offering a prize of

$$$ ONE MILLION DOLLARS $$$ for this rare bird!

Can you catch and bring us a Golden Cockatoo?

Please look at our website for more information.

So that's Doctor Rotter's plan! He's hoping to win the prize! ... But how? Let's find out, Pluto!

Right, Captain - good luck!

It's a sunny day, Rotter - let's walk to Central Park.

OK. Maybe we can find a squirrel there ... have you got the powder?

A squirrel? Maybe that's for his experiment.

I haven't got the secret powder, Doc. It isn't here.

Don't worry, Squeak. There are no squirrels here today ...

We can do the experiment tomorrow, on Liberty Island. There are squirrels on Liberty Island!

That's a cool plan, Doc. Then we can go back to San Francisco for the real business!

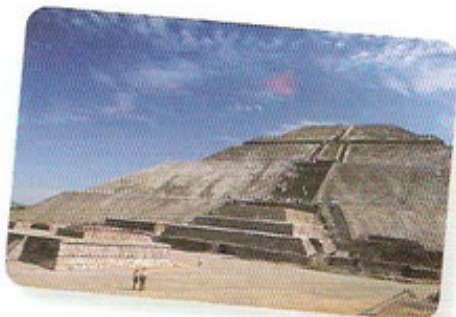

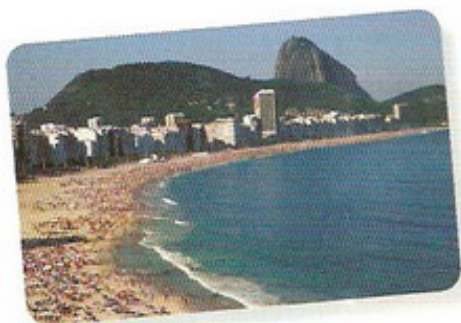

Yeah. You can do your job at the Zoo for us, Bubble ...

Dan's Diner

● Read.

Dan has a busy job. He works in a café in London: 'Dan's Diner'.

He gets up at six o'clock every morning and goes to the market. He buys vegetables and fruit for the café. On Mondays and Thursdays he buys eggs, too, and on Fridays he buys fish.

He opens the café at eight o'clock and he makes 'English breakfast': bacon and eggs, sausages, tomatoes and mushrooms, with toast and tea. Dan's breakfasts are very popular!

On Mondays and Wednesdays, Dan cooks one of his special meat pies for lunch. On Tuesdays and Thursdays he makes pasta with a sauce of tomatoes and peppers – it's delicious. On Fridays he makes a special fish pie, with fish and eggs and potatoes.

Dan doesn't work on Saturdays or Sundays. He gets up late and he reads the newspaper. In the afternoons he usually goes to the playground with his daughter. She likes the swings.

● Answer the questions.

- 1 Where does Dan work?
- 2 What time does he usually get up?
- 3 What does he do before he opens the café in the morning?
- 4 What does he make for lunch at the café on Fridays?
- 5 What does he usually do on Saturday afternoons?

Then suddenly it's New Year's Day
And we're back in January!

Happy New Year!

● Read.

Is this sentence true or false?

"All people celebrate New Year on January 1st."

Answer: It's false. New Year's Day is on different days in different countries of the world.

In Scotland, New Year's Day is on the first of January, but the big New Year's party is on the 31st of December. 'Hogmanay' is the Scottish name for this party. Some people wear 'kilts' and they dance traditional dances to the music of 'bagpipes'. At midnight they sing a special, old Scottish song together, and they remember friends who are not with them.

In China, New Year's Day is usually in February. The Chinese name for their New Year's Day is 'Yuan Dan'. People stop work for three or four days. There are fireworks, delicious food, and special dances: the Lion Dance and the Dragon Dance.

People in Spain celebrate the New Year on the evening of the 31st of December, too. At midnight everyone stops and listens to the clock – BOING! ... BOING! ... BOING! ... and they eat grapes quickly: one grape for every 'BOING!' of the clock, one grape for every month of the old year. They try to eat their twelve grapes before the clock finishes and the first day of the new year starts.

● Answer the questions.

ON THE GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE

A Scottish dinosaur

● Read.

Millions of years ago there were dinosaurs in Europe. Now there are no dinosaurs in Europe or on Earth.

Saltopus was one of the lost dinosaurs. It was a European dinosaur, from the north of Scotland. Saltopus wasn't a very big dinosaur. It was only 60 centimetres from its nose to the end of its tail, and it was short, too – only 40 centimetres from its head to its six big toes.

These small Scottish dinosaurs had long necks and long tails. They had small heads but big mouths with dangerous teeth. They didn't have any ears or hair, but they had big golden eyes.

● Answer: True or False?

- 1 Saltopus was a very big dinosaur.
- 2 Saltopus was not very tall.
- 3 It had a short tail.
- 4 It had a big mouth and dangerous teeth.
- 5 It did not have any ears or hair.

BONFIRE NIGHT

Bonfire Night
in Britain is on November 5th.

Wow!

Look!

● Read. Find the names of four popular fireworks.

On November 5th many British families go to a Bonfire Night party. There are bonfire parties at schools and in parks and some families have a party with fireworks at home. At a Bonfire Party, people watch the fireworks and they eat big, fat hot-dogs and burgers. Some of the fireworks have special names: rockets, Catherine wheels, volcanoes and bangers are some of the popular fireworks in Britain. Children sometimes play with sparklers, too.

Remember: always be very careful with fireworks – they are dangerous.

At the barbecue

I'm hungry. Let's go to the barbecue.

There are 'hot dogs'
with ketchup ...

There are burgers with salad ...

And there are 'Toffee
Apples' – apples with hot sugar all over them.
What's your favourite barbecue food?

The Fireworks rap

76 Listen and say the rap.

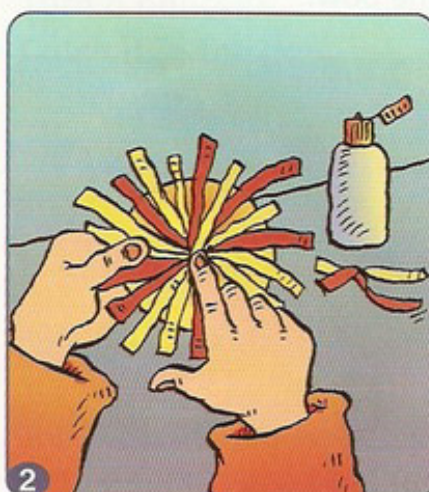

Bonfires go crack-pop-sizzle!
Bangers go bang-bang-bang!
Sparklers go fizz-fizz-fizzle!
And rockets go whoosh-boom-boom!

It's Bonfire Night, it's Fireworks Night.
It's time for 'Look!' and 'Wow!'.
It's time to see the fireworks go:
WHOOSH-BANG-FIZZ-BOOM-BOOM!

The Pancake rap

Listen and repeat.

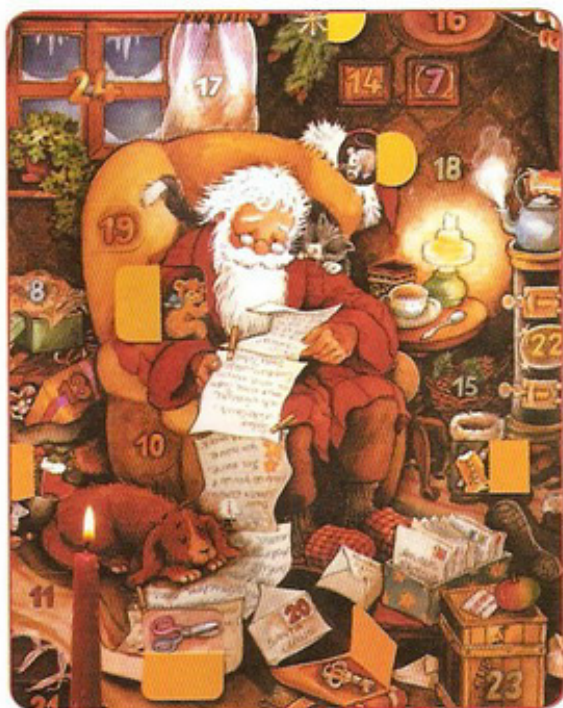

Mix a pancake,
Mix a pancake,
Cook it in a pan.

Turn a pancake,
Turn a pancake,
Catch it in the pan.

Christmas calendars

● Read.

Some families in Britain use a special Christmas calendar in December. The Christmas calendars have little windows, one window for every day of the month before Christmas Day. You open a new window of the calendar every day, and there are small pictures in the windows: maybe a picture of a Christmas tree for the 15th of December, a picture of a Christmas cracker on December 18th, a picture of Christmas presents on December 20th ... and for December 24th there is usually a picture of the baby Jesus. We celebrate his birthday on Christmas Day.

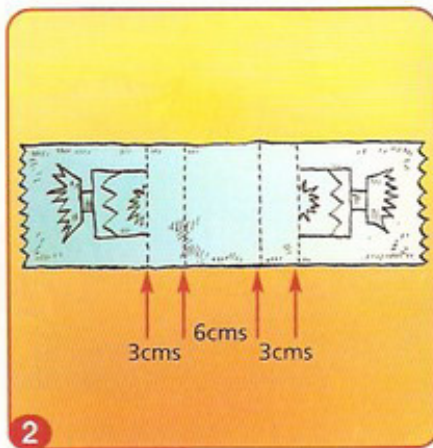

Do you have special Christmas calendars in your country?

Does your family use a Christmas calendar in December?

● Make a cracker-card.

1 Draw a long cracker on a piece of card and then cut it out.

2 Fold the card in four places.

3 Draw and colour the cracker, and draw a 'BANG' in a star in the middle of the card.

Hot cross buns

● Read.

Easter is usually in March or April every year. Some people eat a lot of chocolate at Easter - chocolate eggs, chocolate rabbits and big boxes of chocolates, and some people eat special Easter buns: Hot Cross Buns. (A bun is a small piece of sweet white bread, sometimes with fruit in it.)

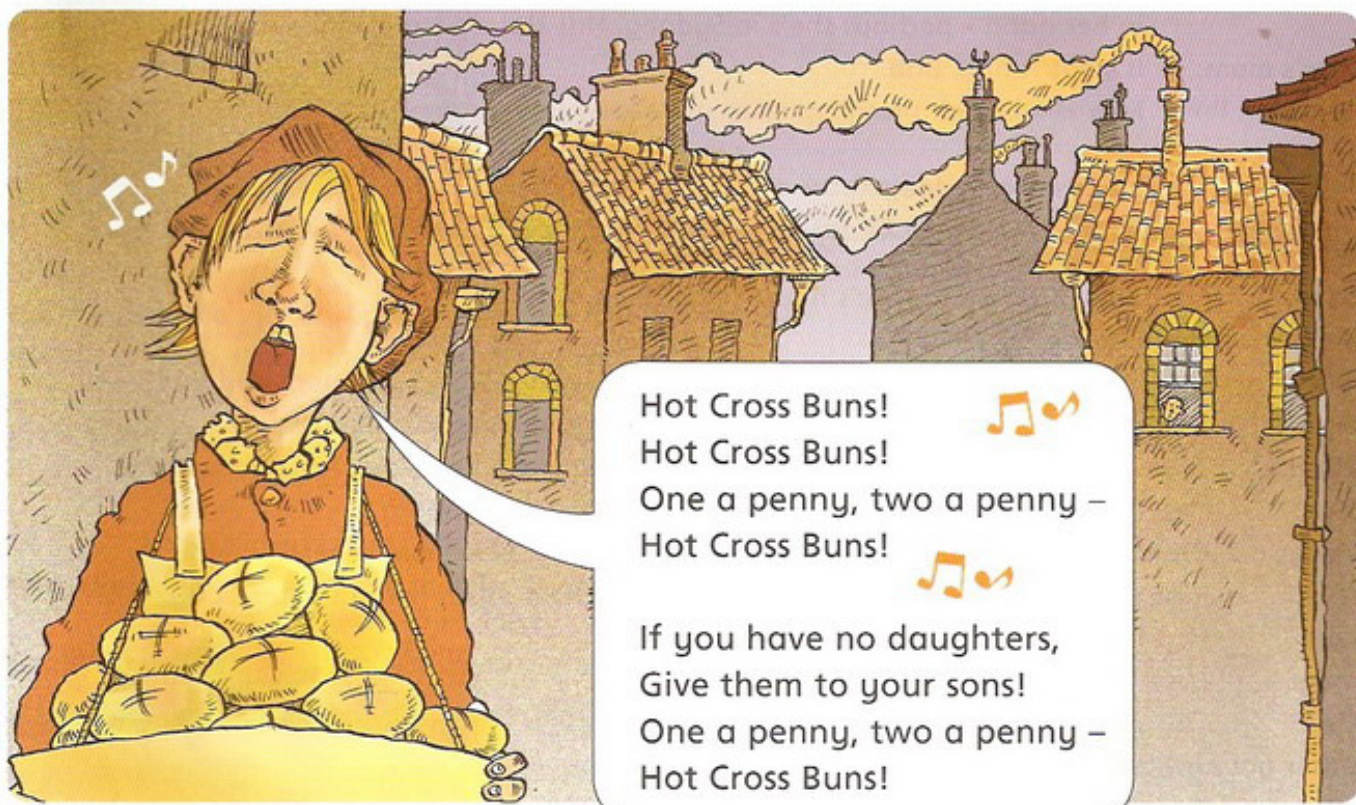

You cut the bun in half, and toast it. When the bun is golden-brown, put it on a plate and butter it. Eat it when it's hot - it's a hot cross bun, remember!

Do you have special cakes, buns or sweets at Easter in your country?

Max's dad	Jody
Max's friends	Other young Australians

ACT 1 Max's birthday, at home in London

- Narrator: It's Max's birthday. She's at home in London.
- Max's friends: Happy Birthday, Max! ... Happy Birthday!
- Max: What's this? ... Wow! A mobile! That's a really cool birthday present – thanks, Mum, and thanks, Dad.
- Max's dad: It's a special new mobile, Max. You can talk to your friends in Australia and other countries.
- Max: Can I send them text messages, too?
- Max's mum: No problem – that's easy. ... Who are you texting, Max?
- Max: I'm writing to Vince and Ellie in Sydney with my new mobile number.

- Max's mum: Max? Max? Where are you? ... She was here a minute ago.
- Max's dad: Where is she? ... She had her new mobile in her hand – perhaps she's in Sydney. Ha! Ha!
- Max's mum: It's not funny, Bob.
- Narrator: Max is missing!

ACT 2 At Vince's house, in Sydney

- Narrator: Suddenly, Max is at Vince's house, in Sydney, Australia.
- Max: Hey! Where am I?
- Vince: Max! What are you doing in Sydney? Are you here with your mum and dad?
- Max: Vince! Hi. I ... er ... No. ... I'm in Sydney? I was in London a minute ago ...
- Vince: Well, you're in Sydney now, Max. And we're having a barbecue. Are you hungry?
- Max: Yes, I'm really hungry!
- Vince: Good. Come and say Hi to Ellie and her friends ... Ellie, Max is here!
- Ellie: Max! It's great to see you again. This is my friend, Jake, and his sister, Jody.
- Jake: Hi, Max. Welcome to Sydney.
- Jody: Here, Max – have a burger.
- Max: Oh, thanks.
- Other young Australians: Hi, Max. ... Pleased to meet you.
- Jake: Hey, Max. That's a cool mobile. Can I look at it?

ACT 3 At Bondi Beach, in Sydney

Max : It's a special new mobile, but I think this mobile is magic.

Jake: A magic mobile? Wow! Let's try it.

Jody: Write the words 'Bondi Beach', Jake, then press 'Send'.

Max: Wait! First, hold my hands. OK – now!

Jake: B – O – N – D – I ... B – E – A – C – H ... Send!

Narrator: Suddenly they are all at Bondi Beach, the most famous beach in Australia.

Young Australians: Hey! ... Wow!

Jake: Your mobile is magic, Max!

Vince: We're at Bondi Beach – the sun is shining and the sea is blue!

Ellie: And I'm hot. Are you coming for a swim – Jake? Max? Come on!

Jake: The waves are good today, but I haven't got my surfboard ...

Jody: The surfing at Bondi is great, Max.

Vince: Yeah, Jake is a great surfer.

Jody: He's the star surfer in our family!

ACT 4 At home again, in London

Narrator: Max is back in London.

Max's dad: Max! Where were you? You weren't in your bedroom, or the kitchen ... and your new mobile wasn't here ...

Max: No, Dad. I had my mobile with me – I was in Australia.

Max's mum: In Australia? But Max, you were only missing for 45 minutes ...

Max: It's true, Mum. I was with Vince and Ellie in Sydney. I had a great time.

Max's dad: She's joking ... Max, are you feeling OK?

Max: No, Dad, I'm not joking. We were at Bondi Beach, and we had a swim in the sea.

Max's mum: I think you're dreaming, Max.

Max: I'm not dreaming, Mum. Vince and Ellie can tell you. Here – use my mobile and ask them: 'Was Max with you in Sydney today?'

Max's dad: OK, give me the mobile. 'Was - Max - with - you - mmm - mmm?' What's their number?

Max: 9802 766513 ... OK, Dad – now press 'Send' ...

Max's mum: Bob? Where are you, Bob? But he was here ...!

Max: I think he's in Australia now, Mum.

- b Where is The Eden Project, and what is it?
- c What can you do at The Eden Project?

Question ☐

Answer 1: The Eden Project is a very special garden in the south-west of England. At The Eden Project there are trees and plants from Europe, Africa, Asia, Australia, and North and South America. The plants grow in two huge greenhouses.

Question ☐

Answer 2: In the greenhouses at The Eden Project there is information about all the plants. There are also competitions and quizzes about plants, and great things to do: paper-making lessons and the 'Crazy Cook Competition', for example.

Question ☐

Answer 3: Plants give us food, clothes, medicines, books and newspapers, and parts of our houses, bicycles and cars. Plants give us oxygen, too. People cannot live without oxygen in the air so we cannot live without plants.

Wallace and Gromit

- Get ready to read. The photo on this page is from a film. What sort of film is it?

a a history film    b a wild life film    c a cartoon film

- Read and find the name of one Wallace and Gromit film.

This is Wallace. He's famous in England. He's the star of some great English animated cartoon films, videos and comic books.

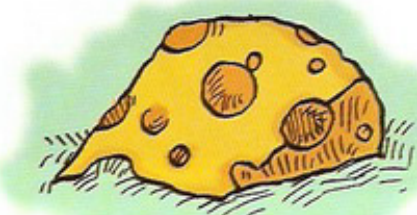

Gromit is Wallace's pet dog. He's the other star of the famous animated cartoon films. They live in a small town in the north of England, and they are both very funny.

Wallace likes to do the same things at the same time every day. He eats toast for breakfast every day, and he drinks tea with milk and sugar. He eats a lot of cheese for lunch and dinner – he only likes good English cheese, of course!

Wallace and Gromit do everything together. They have some amazing adventures. In one adventure film, 'A Grand Day Out', Wallace and Gromit go to the moon. The moon is made of cheese, you see, and Wallace likes cheese! Their rocket is waiting to take them home, ready for their next adventure in their next funny film.

- Answer the questions.

- 1 Who are the stars of 'A Grand Day Out'?
- 2 Where do Wallace and Gromit live?
- 3 What does Wallace eat for breakfast every day?
- 4 What is his other favourite food?
- 5 In 'A Grand Day Out', what is the moon made of?

- In the word-box, find ...

- 1 ... two words for food.
- 2 ... three words for meals.
- 3 ... three film words.

shoe	lunch	adventure
star	toast	dinner
cheese	cartoon	rocket

The Ogopogo and Nessie

- Get ready to read. Look at the pictures on this page. What are 'Nessie' and 'the Ogopogo'?

a funny films    b toys    c water dinosaurs

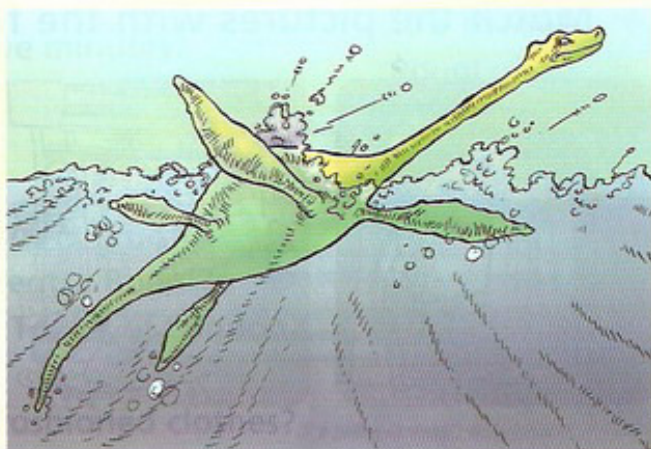

- Now read and check your answer.

Hi! I'm the Ogopogo. I live in a deep lake in the Rocky Mountains of Canada – Lake Okanagan. I've got cousins in lakes in Russia and Sweden, my cousin Tessie lives in Lake Tahoe in California, and there's Champ in Lake Champlain, near New York. My cousin Nessie lives in Scotland.

Some people say I'm only a big fish. Other people say I'm not a real animal – I'm just a story. People come from all over the world to try to find me. Scientists use submarines and special cameras, and they think they can see something deep in Lake Okanagan, but they cannot find me!

Here I am with my long neck and tail, and my green dinosaur face. Am I real or not? What do you think?

The mystery of 'Nessie'

Loch Ness is a big, deep lake in Scotland. Some people think there is a large animal in the lake, perhaps a water dinosaur. 'Nessie' is her name on TV and in the newspapers.

There are photos of the head and neck of a large grey animal in the middle of the lake – are these real photos, or are they a trick?

What is in the lake? We don't know. Nessie doesn't want to be famous. She's happy in the quiet deep water of Loch Ness.

- Answer the questions.

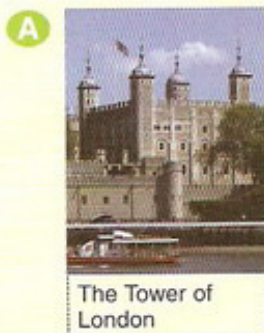

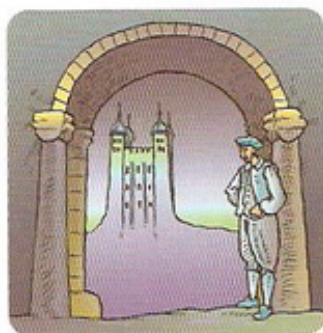

- 1 Where are the Rocky Mountains?
- 2 What do scientists use to look for the Ogopogo?
- 3 What is the name of the monster in Lake Tahoe, California?
- 4 What colour is the Loch Ness monster in photos?

London ghost mysteries

- Get ready to read. In the box find four words for different buildings. Use a dictionary.

theatre explorer church dress prison guard museum shadows

- Now read and check your guesses.
- Match the pictures with the four ghosts in the information.

The Tower of London

Today the Tower of London is a museum, but five hundred years ago it was a prison. Many famous people from British history were in prison there.

Lady Jane Grey is one example, and her ghost still appears in the Tower of London today. Five hundred years ago, Lady Jane was the Queen of England ... but for only nine days. She was a prisoner in the Tower for a long time.

One cold night in February 1957, two museum guards were at work in the Tower of London. Suddenly there was a young woman near them. She had a long white dress, and long golden hair - Lady Jane Grey had long golden hair too.

- Another prisoner in the Tower for many years was Sir Walter Raleigh. He was a great English explorer, writer and scientist four hundred years ago.

It was a windy night in February 1983. One of the guards at the Tower of London was in the guardroom. Suddenly there was a noise at the door, and a tall man was there in the shadows. He had the same old-fashioned clothes as the man in a picture in the Tower of London museum - a picture of Sir Walter Raleigh!

Another famous ghost sometimes appears at a great London church, St Paul's Cathedral. Many people have stories about seeing him. The ghost is an old man with long grey hair, and old-fashioned clothes. He always walks slowly across the same part of the church, and he always disappears into the same part of one wall! Who was this old man? It's a mystery.

There is another ghost mystery at the Theatre Royal, a very old London theatre. This ghost is a young man in old-fashioned English clothes. He always appears at the same time of day, and he always sits in the same place in the theatre. After five minutes, he stands up, walks across the theatre, and disappears into a wall!

Why does this ghost come back again and again? And why does he always sit in that place in this famous old theatre? It's another London ghost mystery.
