

6 BUYING AND SELLING

PAGES 52–53

battery /'bæt(ə)ri/ Noun

a battery is a device that stores electricity and is used in equipment such as phones, tablets, torches, etc

Collocates: a flat/dead battery | recharge a battery | battery life

the battery only lasts a few hours | how long does it take to recharge the battery? | I couldn't ring you because the battery in my phone was flat (it had no more power) | battery life is about 24 hours (the length of time a battery can give power before it becomes flat)

deal /di:l/ Noun

a deal is a particular agreement between a customer and a company, especially one which gives the customer some benefits

I want to know if there are better deals available | we're offering a special deal if you buy before the end of the month | the phone deal was £16 a month but the insurance was another £12 a month

fold /fəʊld/ Verb

if something folds, or if you fold it, it bends so that one part of it covers the other. If something folds out, then it bends the other way and becomes straighter

Collocates: fold out | fold down | fold up the screen folds out so you get twice the size | the chair will fold down flat | he folded up the newspaper and put it back in his briefcase

navigate /'nævigeɪt/ Verb

if you navigate a computer screen, you successfully find the part of it that you need. If you navigate a website, you find the page or pages that you want to see

it's really easy to navigate your way round the screen | simply touch the screen to navigate | you can navigate the site using the links in the side panel | your website should allow users to navigate easily

Noun: navigation

the navigation menu is a great help | good website navigation is essential

password /'pɑ:s,wɜ:(r)d/ Noun a password is a secret list of letters and numbers that you have to put into a computer or phone in order to be able to start using it

these phones use a password, which is not so secure | you should change your password every month | don't use the same password for all the websites you are registered with | this link will help you reset your password (change your old password for a new one) | click here if you've forgotten your password

plug in /,plʌg 'ɪn/ Phrasal verb

if you plug something in, you connect it to a supply of electricity or to another piece of equipment can I plug my phone in here? | you just plug it into a power socket and it should work straight away | is it plugged in? | you can plug your phone into the computer and it will charge up

Noun: plug || Opposite – Verb: unplug put the plug into the socket | don't unplug my phone, it's still charging ### powerful /'paʊə(r)f(ə)l/ Adjective a piece of equipment that is powerful can do its job very well or quickly or to a very great degree the new camera is much more powerful than my old one | computers now are much more powerful than they were five years ago | even using a powerful telescope, it's only a faint glow in the sky

Noun: power

how much processing power does your laptop have?

secure /sɪ'kjʊə(r)/ Adjective if a computer system is secure, it can only be used by people who have permission to use it so information can be kept secret. If your password is secure, it is very difficult for someone to guess what it is these phones use a password, which is not so secure | employees' details are kept on a secure system | the Internet is not a secure environment | the data is stored on secure servers in Germany

Adverb: securely | Noun: security || Opposite – Adjective: insecure

personal details are securely stored on our servers in Germany | access to the site was protected by security software | the operating system had a bug and was highly insecure

speaker /'spi:kə(r)/ Noun a speaker is a piece of equipment that sound comes out of, for example in a phone or a TV or a radio the phone has a fairly large speaker built in on the back | a pair of portable speakers | it's the best Bluetooth speaker I've ever heard | the speaker cables wouldn't plug in properly

store /stɔ:(r)/ Verb

if you store something, you keep it somewhere when you are not using it the phone can store up to 50 voicemails at a time | a music player that can store up to 10,000 songs | I stored some of my old books in the garage | the goods are stored in a warehouse

Noun: storage

there's not much storage space in the attic | my phone has 16GB of storage

swipe /swaɪp/ Verb

on a smartphone or tablet, if you swipe, you touch the screen and move your finger to the left, to the right, up, or down in order to make it display what you want

Collocates: swipe up/down | swipe left/right just swipe your finger across the screen to unlock the phone | simply swipe down to reveal the next page | just swipe the pages to move through the book | what happens if you swipe right? | the user interface lets you tap or swipe your way around the phone

Noun: swipe

Collocates: an up(ward)/down(ward) swipe | a left/right swipe

a downward swipe will close the app | you can erase the data with a single swipe tempt /tempt/ Verb if something tempts you, or if you are tempted by it, it makes you want to do it or have it, although you think you shouldn't Collocates: be tempted to do something | tempt someone to something

it's a nice phone and I'm really tempted | I was tempted to buy it straight away | weren't you tempted by the offer? | can I tempt you to another piece of cake?

Adjective: tempting | Noun: temptation

Collocates: resist temptation

we received a very tempting offer for the house | it was tempting to say that it was my own idea | I managed to resist the temptation to buy another ice cream | the job looked boring, but the big salary was a temptation tiny /'taɪni/ Adjective something that is tiny is extremely small this battery lasts a tiny bit longer than the other one | each fruit contains thousands of tiny seeds | he took a tiny piece of chocolate touch /tʌtʃ/ Noun uncount if you touch something, you put part of your body on it. On a phone or tablet or computer screen, a touch system or a touch screen is one which works when you put your finger on the screen

it uses a touch ID system so you don't need a password | one of the earliest phones to use a touch screen | typing on touch pads is difficult | the screen can be controlled by touch or by eye movements

Verb: touch

touch the screen to start the program unlock /ʌn'lɒk/ Verb if you unlock a computer, tablet, or phone, you do something that proves you have permission to use the device, for example by entering your password just swipe your finger across the screen to unlock the phone | any idea how to unlock my iPad?

Opposite – Verb: lock the phone automatically locks itself after 10 minutes upgrade /ʌp'ɡreɪd/ Verb when you upgrade something, you get a better or more recent form of the same thing Collocates: upgrade something to something

I want to upgrade my phone to the latest version | can I upgrade my laptop to Windows 10? | the operating system will automatically upgrade itself | we'll be upgrading the website at the end of the month | the airline upgraded me to first class

Noun: upgrade

do you need help to install the upgrade? | my laptop needs an upgrade | I downloaded an upgrade from the Internet version /'vɜː(r)ʃ(ə)n/ Noun a version of something is a form of it which is different from other forms

I want to upgrade my phone to the latest version | which version of the song do you like best? | his versions of well-known songs are very popular | I prefer the original version | a simplified version of the story voice recognition /'vɔɪs rekəg'nɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun uncount voice recognition is the ability of a computer program to understand and react to human speech voice recognition software has improved over the last few years | you can use its voice recognition feature to navigate the app zoom /zu:m/ Noun on a camera, the zoom is the feature which lets the camera take more detailed pictures the camera has an excellent digital zoom | the zoom button is on the left | the zoom feature blows things up by as much as 4 times

Verb: zoom

Collocates: zoom in can you zoom in on the cherry tree?

---

PAGES 54–55

---

bright /braɪt/ Adjective bright colours are light and strong, not dark. If a room or house is bright, a lot of light comes in she wears a lot of bright colours | a bright green jacket | the kitchen is lovely and bright | she's got bright blue eyes

Adverb: brightly

brightly-coloured flowers chain /tʃeɪn/ Noun a chain is a set of metal rings, joined together in a line. You can wear a small chain as a decoration, for example round your neck or wrist she was wearing a delicate silver chain round her neck | a heavy gold chain | the chain on a bicycle | the prisoners were kept in chains (tied up with chains)

debt /det/ Noun debt is the state of owing money to someone. A debt is an amount of money that you owe Collocates: be in debt | get into debt | get out of debt | run up a debt | pay back/pay off/clear a debt

I hate being in debt | he ran up huge debts at university | I managed to pay off all my debts once I got a job | once you get into debt your problems will get worse | I just want to get out of debt and start again | I need £2,000 to clear all my debts

heel /hi:l/ Noun your heel is the back part of your foot. The heel of a shoe is the bottom of the shoe at the back. Women's shoes with a very high heel are called high-heeled shoes, or high heels

I need to replace the heels on these shoes | my heel was rubbing on the shoe | my heel's sore | it's difficult to walk in high-heeled shoes | I couldn't run in high heels

hole /həʊl/ Noun a hole is an empty space on the surface of something that goes all the way through Collocates: a hole in something

I've got holes in most of my socks | I drilled a hole through the side of the bath | there's a hole in my bucket

keen /ki:n/ Adjective if you are keen, you are very enthusiastic. If you are keen on something, you like it a lot Collocates: be keen on something | be keen to do something how keen on shopping are you? | I'm keen to see the new art gallery | he's a keen cyclist | a keen stamp collector | he's very keen on sport | I'm not that keen on Indian food label /'leɪb(ə)/ Noun the label on something you buy is the part that has the name of the brand and other information on it

he'll only buy something if it's got a designer label (made by a famous designer) | it's so expensive, and you're really just paying for the label (because it is made by a fashionable designer) | the washing instructions are on the label | check the label before you wash something | the label's sticking out on your T-shirt

Verb: label

label your suitcase with your name luggage /'lʌɡɪdʒ/ Noun uncount your luggage is the bags and suitcases you take with you when you are travelling. Be careful: luggage is always singular. You cannot talk about luggages

I made sure I left plenty of space in my luggage | Shall I carry your luggage for you? | on our way home the airline lost our luggage | heavy luggage | you're only allowed one piece of hand luggage (a bag that you take with you onto a plane) | a luggage rack | you can get a lot of luggage in the boot of an Audi occasion /ə'keɪʒ(ə)n/ Noun an occasion is a time when a particular event happens. An occasion is also the event itself

I have one outfit I only wear on special occasions | he refuses to wear a tie, even on formal occasions | the funeral was a solemn occasion | on this occasion, we managed to see the fireworks

outfit /'aʊtfɪt/ Noun an outfit is a set of clothes that you wear together at the same time

I have one outfit I only wear on special occasions | I need to buy a new outfit for the wedding | that's a nice outfit | she wore a stylish outfit for her interview

plain /pleɪn/ Adjective something that is plain is simple, with no unnecessary parts or decoration he wore a plain blue shirt | a plain suit | the food was quite plain | the document was written in plain language

Adverb: plainly

let me speak plainly: the answer is no purchase /'pɜ:(r)tʃəs/ Noun a purchase is something you have just bought. Purchase is also the act of buying something

I bought an extra bag to bring all my purchases home from holiday | he showed us his recent purchase: a huge sofa | the book is available for online purchase | 27% of global consumers made their last purchase online | they borrowed £1000 to finance the purchase | the total purchase price was nearly $1m

Verb: purchase

tickets can be purchased in advance | my husband and I recently purchased our first home | he accidentally purchased the wrong item rare /reə(r)/ Adjective if something is rare, it is not very common or it does not happen very often the museum houses a number of rare and valuable exhibits | winters are cold, although snow is rare | only a few hundred copies were ever printed, so they are quite rare now | tea was a rare and expensive luxury

Adverb: rarely

he used to be keen, but he rarely plays the piano now | temperatures here rarely reach freezing point rip-off /'rɪp ɒf/ Noun if you say that something is a rip-off, you mean that it is much more expensive than it should be because the people selling it are greedy or dishonest

I never buy designer clothes; they're just a rip-off | tourist attractions here are a total rip-off | we paid £200 for our plane fare, which was a massive rip-off

Verb: rip off

we got ripped off by a taxi driver | the hotel tried to rip us off scruffy /'skrʌfi/ Adjective if someone looks scruffy, their clothes are not smart or clean and they look very untidy he always looks scruffy | a scruffy-looking guy | she was wearing a pair of scruffy jeans | a scruffy old shirt | scruffy hair

Adverb: scruffily

they were both rather scruffily dressed stripy /'straɪpi/ Adjective on a piece of clothing, stripes are lines that go from top to bottom and are a different colour from the areas on either side. If a piece of clothing is stripy, it has stripes in its pattern

a stripy pullover | stripy shirts don't suit me | a dress with a stripy pattern

Noun: stripe | Adjective: striped their skirts had red and blue stripes | he wore a blue striped jacket tag /tæg/ Noun a tag is a piece of paper or plastic that is fixed to something to give information about it your jacket has still got the price tag on | the shop assistants were all wearing name tags | dogs should have a collar and tag | make sure you put a luggage tag on your suitcase

thick /θɪk/ Adjective something that is thick is not thin a pair of thick socks | he was wearing a thick winter coat | a thick woolly jumper | a thick book | the walls are very thick | she's got lovely thick hair

Noun: thickness

the thickness of the walls was nearly one metre tight /taɪt/ Adjective if your clothes are tight, they fit very close to your body tight jeans | a tight skirt | this jacket's too tight | do the shoes feel tight? | those jeans are a very tight fit

Adverb: tightly

she wrapped the scarf tightly round her neck trendy /'trendi/ Adjective something which is trendy is very fashionable. If a person is trendy, they wear fashionable clothes and go to fashionable places he looks quite trendy | she always wears trendy clothes | a trendy bar in Soho | high heels are quite trendy at the moment

Noun: trend

this hairstyle is the latest trend

---

PAGES 56–57

carved /kɑ:(r)vd/ Adjective if objects that are made of wood or stone are carved, they have patterns or pictures on them which someone has made by cutting into the surface

a beautiful carved wooden mask | each room had delicately carved chairs and cabinets | the mirror had a hand-carved frame | an elegantly carved design on the door

Verb: carve | Noun: carving visitors have carved their names in the wood | we bought some lovely wood carvings in Mexico | the carving represented a large tree clay /kleɪ/ Noun uncount clay is a kind of soil which becomes very hard when it is dried and heated. It is used to make bowls, pots, etc people there often cook in clay pots | it's made of clay | a small clay figure | heavy clay soil | play tennis on a clay court consume /kən'sju:m/ Verb if you consume something, you eat it or drink it. In economics, to consume goods or energy means to use them and then replace them with more most people consume more meat than is healthy | he consumed a huge serving of pasta | the average household consumes about 140,000 litres of water a year | one-sixth of all electricity consumed in the US is for air conditioning

Noun: consumption | Noun: consumer energy consumption has been significantly reduced | oil consumption continues to increase | water consumption is much higher in the US than in Europe | the average consumer eats four chocolate bars a week | fewer consumers are buying new cars | consumer spending | women control 80% of consumer spending cute /kju:t/ Adjective in British English, something which is cute is small and attractive, in a slightly childish way. In American English, it can also mean someone is good-looking

what a cute little dog | it's such a cute little teddy bear | she's so cute display /dɪ'spleɪ/ Verb to display something or a set of things means to show them clearly so that people can see them the museum displays a different painting in the entrance every month | the program will display a drop-down menu | shops display their goods in their windows | the college always displays the exam results on the noticeboard

Noun: display

Collocates: on display | a display of something there were some lovely works of art on display (arranged for people to see) | a nice display in the shop window | a display of books about gardening

doll /dɒl/ Noun a doll is a small figure of a person. Some dolls are made as toys for children, and other dolls are painted and used as decoration she was crying because she had lost her favourite doll | a set of eight Russian dolls, one inside another forever /fə'revə(r)/ Adverb if something happens or continues forever, it never stops but carries on happening or existing it'll last forever | do you really want to live forever? | I promise, I'll love you forever | I am forever grateful to you (very grateful) | perhaps the tobacco industry will disappear forever | the truth will not stay hidden forever

genuine /'dʒenjuɪn/ Adjective something that is genuine is not a copy but is really what it seems to be this jacket is genuine leather | a genuine fur coat | it's a genuine Picasso (it really was painted by Picasso)

glass /glɑ:s/ Noun uncount glass is a solid material that lets light through it, and that is used to make windows, mirrors, and objects such as bottles and containers for drinking out of

put the jam in a clean glass jar | a necklace made of coloured glass | the kitchen floor was covered in broken glass | a glass bowl gorgeous /'gɔ:(r)dʒəs/ Adjective something that is gorgeous looks beautiful or tastes delicious you look gorgeous in that dress | a gorgeous silk rug | it's an absolutely gorgeous costume | the garden is simply gorgeous | they have a gorgeous house | he's gorgeous | this ice cream is gorgeous | what a gorgeous day!

hand- /hænd/ Prefix you use hand- in front of other words to say how something was made by someone using just their hands and simple tools rather than using industrial machines or methods hand-woven materials | handmade chocolates | a hand-carved guitar | a handbuilt car handmade /,hæn(d)'meɪd/ Adjective if something is handmade, it has been made by someone using their hands and simple tools, and not by machines she sold handmade jewellery | handmade soap is much more expensive | a handmade wooden model of the Titanic | a beautiful handmade silk scarf insult /ɪn'sʌlt/ Verb if you insult someone, you say something rude to them or about them he insulted me several times | they're insulting us by offering so little money | how dare you insult me! | he had deliberately insulted her in public | they're always arguing or insulting each other

Noun: insult | Adjective: insulting

Collocates: an insulting remark/comment refusing to shake hands was a deliberate insult | he took it as a personal insult | as he was taken out of the court he shouted insults at the judge | he sent me a rude and insulting email | she accused me of making insulting remarks | he made no apologies for his insulting language

mask /mɑ:sk/ Noun a mask is an object that covers your face and that has another face painted on it

I bought a hand-carved wooden mask in Tanzania | all the children were making masks for the party model /'mɒd(ə)/ Noun a model is a smaller copy of a larger object a plastic model of the Eiffel Tower | a scale model (one which is exactly in proportion to the larger object) | a model aeroplane | he made a model of the Taj Mahal using matchsticks pot /pɒt/ Noun a pot is a container that is used for cooking, storing food, or growing plants in people there often cook in clay pots | a large cooking pot with two handles | a red plant pot | a flower pot | a delicate, hand-painted tea pot

print /prɪnt/ Verb to print something means to use a machine to put words or pictures onto paper or cloth, often when making many copies of something. Printed material, or print books, are made of paper, and contrast with electronic or digital material that you can only read on a computer screen

we're going to print 40,000 copies of the dictionary | this book was printed in China | the first edition was printed in 1923 | a tie with a picture of the Great Wall of China printed on it

Adjective: print | Noun: print | Noun: printing

Collocates: be/go out of print | be in print

I've got the e-book, but I'd like to buy a print copy too | all his books are out of print now (all the copies have been sold and there are no more new ones available to buy) | all her novels are still in print (still available to buy) | a printing and publishing company

rug /rʌg/ Noun a rug is a thick piece of cloth that is used to cover part of the floor in a room a beautiful Turkish rug | it has the soft feel of a wool rug | a blue rug with matching cushions silk /sɪlk/ Noun uncount silk is a fine, smooth cloth which is made from thread that is produced by an insect called a silkworm. It is usually expensive a beautiful silk scarf | a dress made of silk | it's made of pure silk straw /strɔ: / Noun uncount straw is the dried stems of plants such as wheat. It is used for animals to sleep on, and also for making bags, hats, or furniture

a straw hat | the smell of damp straw came from the barn | farmers are no longer allowed to burn straw throw away /,θrəʊ ə'weɪ/ Phrasal verb if you throw something away, you get rid of it because you do not want it or need it any more my wife refuses to throw them away even though we don't want them | I threw away a pile of old clothes | the old cooker was broken so we threw it away ungrateful /ʌn'grɛɪt(ə)/ Adjective if you are ungrateful, you deliberately do not say thank you or show any thanks to someone who has done something kind to you

I don't want to sound ungrateful, but I don't want any presents | don't be so ungrateful! | I hope he didn't think I was ungrateful

PAGES 58–59*aggressive /ə'ɡresɪv/ Adjective if a person or animal is aggressive, they behave in a very determined, angry, or violent way towards people you have to be quite aggressive when you are negotiating over the price | an aggressive dog | I was scared by his aggressive and threatening behaviour | he gets very aggressive sometimes | some clients can be extremely aggressive

Adverb: aggressively | Noun: aggression several people reacted aggressively to the announcement | he was accused of both physical and verbal aggression (being violent and also being deliberately rude and insulting) disciplined /ˈdɪsəplɪnd/ Adjective someone or something that is disciplined behaves or is organised in a very carefully controlled way the display was well organised and disciplined | he takes a very disciplined approach to writing | the enquiry will be carried out in a thorough and disciplined manner Noun: discipline

she lacks self-discipline (the ability to control her own behaviour properly) | we had poverty, true, but we also had strict discipline

frame /freɪm/ Noun a frame is an object made of something rigid that goes around the edge of a picture, door, window etc and keeps the picture, door, or window in place a carved wooden picture frame | the door frame started rotting after the floods | a picture frame Adjective: framed a framed photograph of her grandchildren garbage /ˈgɑː(r)bɪdʒ/ Noun uncount garbage is rubbish that you throw away. You can also refer to things that are useless or that have no value as garbage don't try and sell things that are broken or garbage | household garbage | a garbage truck (that takes rubbish away from people's houses)

shoot /ʃu:t/ Verb to shoot or to shoot a gun means to make a bullet come out of it Collocates: shoot at someone or something | shoot someone dead someone turned it into a target and started shooting at it | the gunmen shot dead six people outside the school | they were ambushed and shot by rebel soldiers Noun: shooting
six people died in the shooting | two fatal shootings have taken place in the last month target /ˈtɑː(r)ɡɪt/ Noun a target is an object that you try and hit when you are shooting as a sport. A target is also a particular thing you are trying to achieve in your job someone turned it into a target and started shooting at it | the target was a rock a hundred metres away | we used an old door as a target | target practice | our sales target for this year is 20,000 units turn into /ˈtɜː(r)n ɪntuː/ Phrasal verb if one thing turns into another thing, it changes completely and stops being what it was and becomes the other thing someone turned it into a target and started shooting at it | in the story, the frog turned into a handsome prince | it used to be a garage but we've turned it into an office | at zero degrees centigrade, water turns into ice

EXERCISES

PREPOSITIONS

A Complete the sentences with the correct preposition.

- 1 She carved a flower ..... the wood.
- 2 The plates are made ..... china.
- 3 The airline upgraded me ..... first class.
- 4 I've got holes ..... most of my socks.

B Choose the correct preposition.

- 1 It says what size it is in / on the label.
- 2 I only wear this necklace on / at special occasions.
- 3 They took turns to shoot to / at the target.
- 4 I need to plug my computer into / in this socket.

WORD FAMILIES

C Complete the expressions with the correct form of the word in bold.

- 1 store some old books need more ..... space
- 2 a stripy dress a dress with red and blue .....
- 3 tempted by his offer a ..... offer
- 4 a trendy bar it's the latest ..... in hairstyles

D Tick the words which are both a noun and a verb.

- 1 swipe .....
- 2 label .....
- 3 upgrade .....
- 4 tempt .....
- 5 zoom .....
- 6 speaker .....

COLLOCATIONS

E Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verbs from the box. Look up the verbs if you need help.

navigate	unlock	store	upgrade	swipe
----------	--------	-------	---------	-------

- 1 You need to ..... left to go to the next page.
- 2 Just tap on the screen to ..... the phone.
- 3 A good website should be easy for users to .....
- 4 My computer's quite old and slow — I need to ..... it.
- 5 You can ..... thousands of songs on an MP3 player.

F Complete the collocations with nouns from the unit.

- 1 shoes with high h_ _ _s
- 2 a designer l_ _ _l
- 3 a flat b_ _ _ _y
- 4 a gold c_ _ _n
- 5 a picture f_ _ _e

G Choose the correct verbs to complete the collocations. Look up the nouns if you need help.

- 1 You can do / use voice recognition to navigate the website.
- 2 It took three hours to recharge / upgrade the battery.
- 3 You can swipe or tap to navigate / store a computer screen.
- 4 He got a weekend job to clean / clear his debt.
- 5 She was wearing / dressing a very trendy outfit.

H Match the adjectives with the nouns. Look up the adjectives if you need help.

- |                    |                  |
|--------------------|------------------|
| 1 a beautiful silk | a) little dog    | | 2 a handmade straw | b) dress         | | 3 a cute           | c) woolly jumper | | 4 a hand-painted   | d) cooking pot   | | 5 a thick          | e) hat           |

PHRASAL VERBS

I Choose the correct phrasal verb. Look up the nouns if you need help.

- 1 She worked hard to pay off / throw away her debt.
- 2 There was nowhere to turn into / plug in her phone.
- 3 The cafe plugs into / turns into a restaurant at night.
- 4 She threw away / ripped off all her old toys.