- Ava Did you see the thing on TV about that girl taking photos of her school dinners?
- Paul What? That doesn't sound like news.
- Ava No, it is. She was doing a blog about her school meals. She took a picture of the dinner and talked about how good or bad it was, how healthy and stuff, and some newspaper did a story about it and the local government told the school to stop her taking photos.
- Paul Really?
- Ava Yeah, apparently she's had hundreds of thousands of visits to her blog and the council was embarrassed.
- Paul Why? Because the dinners were so bad?
- Ava Yeah. Actually, I don't think they were all bad, but some were.
- Paul That's silly.
- Ava I know, it's stupid.
- Ava OK, you start.
- Paul Did you see that Brenda Spearmint is getting married again?
- Ava I know! It's amazing, isn't it?
- Paul Apparently, it's her seventh time.
- Ava I didn't realise it was that many. She must be a very optimistic person!
- Paul What? Because she still thinks her love will last?
- Ava Exactly.
- Paul I mean, it can't be for the money – I think she loses some money every time she gets divorced.
- Ava That's true. Maybe she just likes weddings.
- Paul She could go to other people's weddings, if that was it.
- Ava True. So, who is she marrying?
- Paul Her fitness instructor. Apparently, he's 30 years younger than her.
- Ava Good for her!
- Paul Come on! He's marrying her for the money.
- Ava So what? I think it's great. People wouldn't say anything if it was a man and the woman was younger.
- Paul Maybe not, but I think you're as optimistic as she is!
- Ava I don't know. Apparently they want to have a kid.
- Paul How can they have a kid? She must be 60.
- Ava 59. I think they were planning to adopt.
- Paul I don't know about that. I mean she'll be in her seventies when the kid's a teenager.
- Ava Yeah, but the dad will still be young and Brenda's very fit – she certainly doesn't look 59.
- Paul That's true. I just don't know about having kids so late. I don't think it's good.
