

1 Put the words in the correct order to make questions for A. B's answers are given to help you. There is always one word that you do not need.

1 lost / you / what / lose / did / ?

A _____

B A book.

2 may / did / ask / there / happened / what / I / ?

A _____

B There was an accident.

3 takes / you / on our trip / will / take / what / ?

A _____

B Definitely a camera.

4 helped / who / has / you / have / ?

A _____

B Jake.

5 these shoes / you / how much / cost / tell / do / me / can / ?

A _____

B €10.

6 whose / do / is / for / know / who / he / you / waiting / ?

A _____

B Maybe for his parents.

2 Write questions for the answers. Add How, Who, What, When, Where, Who or Which and use the words in brackets in their correct form.

1 (tell / you / about the party)

Yasmin. She also invited me.

2 (you / look for)

My watch! I put it on the table yesterday evening but it isn't here now.

3 (the nearest pharmacy / be)

Could you tell me _____

Turn left, walk 200 metres and it'll be opposite the post office.

4 (this backpack / belong to)

No. There's no name tag anywhere. It's been lying here for two days and nobody has been looking for it.

5 (have / a cough)

Would you mind telling me _____

I've had it since last Friday.

6 (song / you / listen to / all day yesterday)

Can you tell me _____

We were listening to Billie Eilish.

7 (your brother / leave / hospital)

Do you remember _____

He came back home on Monday. He stayed there for three days only.

8 (lead to / a heart attack)

I think many things lead to a heart attack: a bad diet, not being active or some other health problems.

9 (we / be / late / for the doctor's appointment)

Can you tell me _____

No, we aren't. We're right on time.

10 (you / call / last night)

I called Grayson. I wanted to ask him for help.

3 Imagine you want to find out more information about the events from the text messages below (A and B). Write two direct and two indirect questions related to each message. Compare your questions in pairs.

A

messages

Who were you spending your holiday with?

You'll never believe what happened to me! We were spending our holiday at a lake. The weather was perfect so we often swam in the lake. One day we were swimming and something bit my leg. It hurt a lot. Luckily, I got help and soon everything was okay, but I don't think I'll ever swim in that lake again!

B

messages

I had the worst night yesterday! Remember how I told you about the cold I had. I thought everything was okay, but no! In the evening I had the worst sore throat ever. And with my big day tomorrow I just couldn't lose my voice. I used some natural treatments and took different medicine. I was so worried that I couldn't sleep for hours. Luckily, it worked.