

Speaking

1 Work in pairs. Read your card carefully and then role play these conversations between two friends.

Student A

Role play 1

You and Student B are friends. Ask Student B these questions to find out about his/her plans for Saturday.

- What are your plans for Saturday?
- What band are you going to see?
- Where is the band playing?
- Have you seen them play before?
- Can I come too?
- What should I wear?

Role play 2

You and Student B are friends. You are in a 'Save the Planet' club at school. Answer Student B's questions.

The club meets after school on Thursdays. The members want to give people ideas about how they can save the planet. They post the ideas on the club's web page, for example, how to save water. They don't organize protests. If members see people pollute the environment, they stop them!

Student B

Role play 1

You and Student A are friends. Answer Student A's questions about your plans for Saturday.

You and your cousin are going to see a heavy metal band called 'Amazing'. They're playing in the town hall. You've already seen them twice!

Role play 2

You and Student A are friends. Ask Student A these questions to find out about your school's 'Save the Planet' club.

- When does the club meet?
- What do the members want to do?
- How do they do this?
- Are they going to organize a protest??
- If you see people drop rubbish in the street later, what will you do?
- What do I have to do to join the club?
