Julia            My mobile phone is at home, so I drew a picture.
Alexander    Ha ha! You're a great artist!
Julia            I know! My drawing is worse than my English!
Alexander    So, who's that?
Julia            That's my sister, Agata.
Alexander    OK. Is she older or younger than you?
Julia            Older. Three years older. She's 26 now.
Alexander    What does she do?
Julia            She's a lawyer. She works for a company in Gothenburg, our hometown.
Alexander    Is she married?
Julia            Yes, she got married last year. Her husband's name is Jonas.
Alexander    And do they have any children?
Julia            No, not yet. They both work a lot, so you know.
Alexander    OK. So, who's that? Is it a man or a woman?
Julia            It's a man. He's my best friend, Fredrik. He has very long hair!
Alexander    How long have you known him?
Julia            We grew up together. We went to school together, you know.
Alexander    Do you see him much?
Julia            Not really, because he moved to the capital, Stockholm, to study.
Alexander    What's he studying?
Julia            History and Politics.
Alexander    Oh, wow! OK. Anyway, last one ... who is that?
Julia            This is my niece, Elsa.
Alexander    Aah! How old is he?
Julia            She! She's a girl. My niece, not my nephew.
Alexander    Oh, sorry. Sorry!
Julia            She's three. She's the daughter of my oldest brother. It's a bad drawing, but she's very cute. Anyway, what about you?
