- Alejandro OK. We need to decide the things we want to take on the picnic, right?
- Madeline Yes.
- Alejandro Well, I think we need to take a special box for the picnic.
- Madeline What do you mean?
- Alejandro You know. The big boxes ... maybe box is the wrong word ... it's a big container, made from ... like wood, but not wood ... like the thin skin of wood ... and they put it together like this and you can carry plates and forks and knives and food and everything in there.
- Madeline Yes, OK. I know what you mean. It's a picnic carrying box.
- Alejandro Yes.
- Madeline Oh, we need to take a blanket.
- Alejandro What's a blanket?
- Madeline Like a big cloth to sit on in the park. The same thing that you put on your bed to keep warm.
- Alejandro Oh. Yes. Fine. And we should also take one of those things that you use to open bottles of wine. You know, like this.
- Madeline I know what you mean. We should also take some wine then!
- Alejandro If we want to use it, yes.
- Madeline Oh, we also need to take a 'Termosflasche'.
- Alejandro You mean the thing that you use to keep hot drinks hot?
- Madeline Yes.
- Alejandro It's called 'Termosflasche'? In my language it's called 'termo'.
- Madeline Ha! In my language it's 'Termosflasche'. I don't know the word in English, but you understand me.
- Alejandro Yes. We ought to take some stuff for putting on our skin to protect it from the sun as well.
- Madeline You think it will be sunny? Here?
- Alejandro Maybe! We should take some stuff in case.
- Madeline OK. So let's take a big ... um ... it's an umbrella but for the sun, to protect you from the sun. What's the word?
- Alejandro I don't know, but I know what you mean.
- Madeline OK. What else?
- Alejandro We should take a box of tissues.
- Madeline Ah! I have the same picture! You mean tissues for your nose?
- Alejandro Yes, I think so. Yours is the same?
- Madeline Yes. Maybe one is for eating and one is a little bit wet, for cleaning your hands after eating?
- Alejandro Yes, maybe. Anyway, we should take both then!
