Unit 9*A

There's a new drug that deals with about 90% of all flu cases.

Some terrorists have been caught with nuclear material. Nobody knows where they got it from or what they plan to do with it.

The forecast says there's going to be a storm. It'll be very windy and it'll rain a lot.

The forecast says it's going to snow at the start of the weekend and then it'll be cold and sunny.

They suggest giving it free to everyone.

Alexander and Julia think they need to find out!

Julia suggests going somewhere hot and sunny for a few days – to escape.

Alexander suggests Spain!

They suggest going to the park and going sledging and making snowmen.

Alexander Did you hear about the new cure for the flu?
Julia No.
Alexander There's a new drug which deals with 90% of all cases.
Julia Really? That's great news!
Alexander I know. It's fantastic.
Julia Maybe ... I don't know what to suggest ... um ...
Alexander Maybe they should give it to everyone for free!
Julia Yes! Absolutely! So, did you see the news about those terrorists? With the nuclear material?
Alexander With what?
Julia Nuclear material. To make a big, big nuclear bomb.
Alexander Really?
Julia Well, not really. Just for example! They don't know where they got the material or what they planned to do with it.
Alexander That's terrible! I'm scared!
Julia I know!
Alexander They should find out!
Julia I agree!
Alexander Did you see the weather forecast for the weekend?
Julia No.
Alexander There's going to be a storm. It will be really windy and it's going to rain a lot.
Julia That's not good.
Alexander I know. That's terrible.
Julia We ought to go somewhere nice and hot and sunny for those days.
Alexander Definitely! Maybe Spain.
Julia Yes. Good idea. So, did you see the forecast for the weekend?
Alexander Yes! I just told you about it!
Julia No, this is a different forecast! The newest one!
Alexander Oh, OK! So, no. What did it say?
Julia Well, it's going to snow in the beginning of the weekend, then it will get cold and sunny.
Alexander That's great. Better than rain and wind!
Julia I know!
Alexander Why don't we go to the park and play ... um ... I don't know what you call it. When you travel in the snow on a small wooden thing. Going down a hill. You know?
Julia Yes! Yes. That sounds great.
Alexander What do you call this in English?
Julia I don't know, but I understand what you mean.
Alexander Good! And we can make a snowman, too.
Julia Mmm!
