VIDEO SCRIPT

- Madeline So what do you do? You haven't told me.
- Alejandro Oh, I work in IT.
- Madeline Really? What do you do? I mean what kind of IT work?
- Alejandro I run my own company. We install computer systems, sort out problems, things like this.
- Madeline Wow! So how long have you worked ... how long have you done this?
- Alejandro For three years now. We are doing very well at the moment. The company is growing.
- Madeline Great. Do you enjoy it? I guess yes.
- Alejandro Yes, I really love it.
- Madeline And the money? Is it good?
- Alejandro Very good. I'm getting rich! Anyway, what about you? What do you do?
- Madeline I work for a big firm of architects.
- Alejandro OK. And where do you work?
- Madeline In a big studio in Hannover, in Germany.
- Alejandro OK, do you enjoy it?
- Madeline Yes, very much. I've worked there for six years now and I love it. It's very interesting.
- Alejandro That's good. Oh ... what do you do in your company?
- Madeline I started in Marketing, but then they trained me to help with the drawing of buildings, so now I do that. We're working on a new project – for a modern station in Hildesheim.
- Alejandro What are the hours like?
- Madeline Sometimes I work very long hours – maybe 15 or 16 hours a day – but not always. And the work is good, so it's OK. I'm learning all the time, so I don't mind.
- Alejandro Do you get on with the people you work with?
- Madeline Some of them yes, some of them no.
- Alejandro That's normal, isn't it?
- Madeline Yes.
