Nicci Are you OK?
Chen No, not really. I've got a terrible cough and a sore throat. It's awful. I can't concentrate on the class.
Nicci Oh no! You poor thing! How long have you had it?
Chen For a few days now.
Nicci Have you been to the doctor's about it?
Chen No, not yet. I'll be OK, I think. I'll see how I feel later today.
Nicci Are you taking anything for it?
Chen Just some ... um ... some medicine for coughs – some cough medicine.
Nicci OK, well, maybe you should try some honey and lemon.
Chen Yes, maybe. It might help.
Nicci Well, take it easy and get well soon.
Chen Thank you. So shall we change?
Nicci OK.
Chen So ... are you OK?
Nicci No, not really! I've got a horrible rash on my arm. It's some kind of allergy. It's really itchy, and I want to scratch it, but if I scratch it then it gets worse.
Chen Oh, you poor thing! It sounds awful. Have you been to see the doctor about it?
Nicci Yes, but they don't know why it happens. They said I need lots of tests if I want to find out!
Chen Oh, how annoying! Are you taking anything for it?
Nicci Yes, I have a special cream I put on it, but it's not really working at the moment.
Chen Why don't you try homeopathy? You know, natural medicine. It might be better.
Nicci That's not a bad idea, actually. Maybe I will.
