- Nicci So what was your favourite subject at school?
Chen Not English! I think maybe it was History.
Nicci Really?
Chen Yes, I've always been interested in ancient history. Maybe it's because I'm Chinese, you know?
Nicci Because of all the old emperors?
Chen Maybe! And what about you, Nicci? Did you go to university?
Nicci Yes, but a long time ago!
Chen No! I don't believe it.
Nicci It's true. I graduated from Lisbon University, in the capital of Portugal.
Chen OK. And what did you study?
Nicci Law.
Chen Did you enjoy it?
Nicci I did, but it was a long course. It was really hard work.
Chen I'm sure.
Nicci So what about you? Have you been to university yet?
Chen No, not yet. To be honest, I don't really want to.
Nicci No?
Chen No. I'd rather go travelling and see the world instead. I'm very bored of studying.
Nicci So why don't you do that?
Chen Well, my parents want me to study more. They say if I don't, I won't find a good job.
Nicci They might be right. It's not easy at the moment. Maybe you could just take a year out and travel and then study?
Chen Maybe, but if I want to do that, I'll need to work first and save money.
Nicci Can you ask your parents for money?
Chen Not really. They have money for me, but to study, not travel.
Nicci And if you go to university, what course will you do?
Chen I'm not sure. Maybe Art. Maybe History. Maybe Philosophy. My father wants me to study Business.
Nicci Yes, but it's your life, not his life!
Chen Can you telephone him and say this?
