

Quiz 1 – Answers

- 1 You might sing along with a catchy song or have it in your head all day.
- 2 A crisis is a bad thing to go through.
- 3 If a person's character is flawed, they might be immature, restless, foolish, unkind or arrogant.
- 4 You might need a disguise if you want to hide your identity.
- 5 If you fulfil an ambition or dream, you achieve it.
- 6 You might steer clear of an area, if it's dangerous or rough, or a person if you don't want to talk to them.
- 7 The opposite of a stunning building is a hideous building.
- 8 You could launch a new product, a rocket, an advertising campaign, etc.
- 9 You acquire things by buying them, being given them or by collecting them.
- 10 If you settle in a town or a city, you get a job, a house and maybe start a family.
- 11 Things that use or contain wire could be a coat hanger, an electric cable, a mobile phone aerial.
- 12 A work of art is ambiguous if its meaning is not clear or is open to different interpretations.
- 13 (Answer depends on where you are.)
- 14 You can use, glue, a nail or a screw to join together bits of wood.
- 15 A government might boost their country's reputation by encouraging tourism, taking care of the environment, making policies that support education.

Quiz 2 – Answers

- 1 You might need a substitute if a player is injured.
- 2 If you take the mickey out of someone, you make fun of them in a friendly way.
- 3 You might be out of shape if you don't do enough exercise or if you eat unhealthy food.
- 4 The kindness of other people, living in a different culture and seeing a beautiful sight can be overwhelming.
- 5 You suffer from jetlag when you travel by plane from one time zone to another, you can get over it by adjusting your sleep pattern to the new time zone a couple of days before you leave, or by staying awake in the new time zone until it's time to go to sleep there.
- 6 Herbal tea, warm milk, etc. can help settle your stomach. The problem might be that you feel nervous or anxious about something.
- 7 If two people have a stormy relationship, they are always fighting.
- 8 If the police raid somewhere, they go in there using force in order to look for criminals or illegal goods. If the police seize something, they take it by force and do not return it because it is illegal or stolen.
- 9 If a child vanishes, they disappear; money, a car, a stain, etc. can all vanish.
- 10 People often have to put up with transport being late, a colleague at work, noisy neighbours.
- 11 If you hit fog, you might get lost or stop and wait for it to lift.
- 12 Finding it more difficult to walk, greying hair, eyesight gets worse, etc. are things you associate with ageing.
- 13 People often moan about the weather, the price of things, public transport, etc.
- 14 You can chill out by reading a book, sitting on the beach and listening to the waves, chatting with friends, listening to music, etc.
- 15 You might stay in a self-catering apartment because you want some privacy, because it's easier to do what you want to do, or because it's cheaper than a hotel.

Quiz 3 – Answers

- 1 When someone gets promoted they are moved to a higher position in their workplace.
- 2 Cleaning the streets and filling shelves in a supermarket are two types of menial jobs. Usually they are not stimulating.
- 3 General and captain are two different ranks in the army.
- 4 Someone might have a get-together to celebrate something. For example, a birthday or a promotion at work.
- 5 If something is an outrage, you feel angry and upset.
- 6 A restaurant, hotel or area might be posh.
- 7 A politician might resign because they accepted a bribe, the opposition is increasing their power, they are getting old, etc.
- 8 If a room is very stuffy, you can open the windows or door to let some air in.
- 9 Chat is a friendly conversation; chat up is when you are attracted to someone and you talk to them because you want them to like you.
- 10 If a party gets out of hand, people might be very drunk and noisy, there might be a problem and people start arguing.
- 11 Oil, petrol, diesel and wood can all be used as fuel.
- 12 You need to indicate when you want to turn right or left.
- 13 You might embark on a journey, a course or an activity.
- 14 You usually get blisters on your feet because your shoes are new or too tight.
- 15 You might need recuperation after an accident, an illness or a difficult experience. You can rest in bed, go on a relaxing holiday, go to a spa, etc. for recuperation.

Quiz 4 – Answers

1 drop out = you stop going to school or university before the end of the course; knock out = you force someone to stop competing in a competition because they are not good enough or are not as good as other people.

2 You might give someone a bribe if you want them to do something which is illegal.

3 If a child is affectionate they might hug you, kiss you or say they love you a lot.

4 A toast is an occasion when people drink together to celebrate something or to wish people luck. You make a toast at a wedding, birthday or other important occasion.

5 You might have to compromise in an argument or when you cannot have everything you want.

6 You go into overdraft if you spend more money than is in your bank account.

7 A debt = money that you owe to someone else; a loan is money that someone else has given to you that you must pay back in the future.

8 The odds are low.

9 People can be driven by ambition, greed, desire, etc.

10 You remove the peel, skin or bones before eating.

11 Another verb that means the same as chuck is throw.

12 A protest is a peaceful demonstration; a riot involves violence and damage to property.

13 When something is prohibited, it is not allowed by the authorities, for example because it causes problems or is unfair.

14 You would chase up a payment if your cash-flow was bad, or it was overdue.

15 Turnover = the value of goods or services a company has sold; profit = the amount of money a company makes after the costs have been subtracted from the turnover.