- Eduardo Are you ready? OK, then. I'm calling you, right? So ... ring, ring. Ring, ring.
- Sandra Hello.
- Eduardo Hi. Is that Sandra?
- Sandra Yes. You recognised my voice!
- Eduardo Of course I did.
- Sandra Good! So, how are you? Are we still meeting tonight?
- Eduardo Ah. Actually, that's why I'm calling.
- Sandra OK. What's up?
- Eduardo Well, actually, it's my mother. She's had an accident. While she was driving.
- Sandra Oh no! Seriously? That's awful! How is she? What happened?
- Eduardo Slow down, please! I can only give you the answer to one question at a time.
- Sandra OK. Well, first then how is she?
- Eduardo Not very well, actually. She's resting in hospital. The doctors told her she has to stay there tonight and maybe tomorrow. She's got some bad bruises and a deep cut on her arm. She had to have some stitches. And she's got some scratches on her body as well, but the worst thing is the shock. I tried to give her some whisky, but she didn't want it!
- Sandra That's so awful. And you are not a good son! Please give her my best regards. So what happened?
- Eduardo Well, she was driving home from the shops and another car crashed into her car. I think maybe the driver was drunk or something. I don't know. Anyway, listen. We're supposed to be meeting tonight, aren't we?
- Sandra Well, that's the plan, but don't worry. I understand. We can always meet some other time.
- Eduardo Thanks for understanding. This means I can go and visit my mum and spend time there.
- Sandra You do that. And tell her I hope she gets better soon.
- Eduardo OK. Bye.
- Sandra Bye.
- Sandra Shall we try one more? I'll call you. OK?
- Eduardo OK.
- Sandra Ring, ring. Ring, ring.
- Eduardo Hello?
- Sandra Hi, is that Eduardo?
- Eduardo No, it's not.
- Sandra Oh, sorry. I must have the wrong number.
- Eduardo Hi, Sandra. What's up?
- Sandra Listen. Can you do me a favour? Can you tell the teacher I can't come to class tomorrow?
- Eduardo Yeah, sure. What's the matter? Anything serious?
- Sandra Well, it's my son. He's got a horrible bug at the moment, so I'll need to stay at home and take care of him.
- Eduardo Oh, that's awful.
- Sandra Yeah, I know. He's got everything! A sore throat and a cough and a runny nose and earache and a headache and diarrhoea. Everything!
- Eduardo Vomiting?
- Sandra Not yet, but probably soon, I expect.
- Eduardo Have you taken him to the doctor yet?
- Sandra Yes, but there's nothing much they can do because he's still so small. They just said to watch him and make sure he drinks lots of fluids and sleeps a lot.
- Eduardo Well, give him a hug from me and don't worry. I'll pass on your message to the teacher tomorrow.
- Sandra Thank you. And maybe I'll take the day after off as well.
