

---

ANSWER KEY

---

Unit 5*A

- 1 The film was disappointing. It was supposed to be a terrifying horror movie, but it was just silly. It didn't live up to the hype.
- 2 Nicholas's new flat is better than his old one. It's much cheaper, he can walk to and from school / work, but he did like the old place and it was bigger.
- 3 The Thai restaurant was great. The food was really good and they stuffed themselves!
- 4 The morning after Yvonne felt ill. She stayed up late – she didn't get to bed until 3 – and then had to get up early. She felt rough.

D

- 1 haven't seen it, though
- 2 was going to be
- 3 didn't live up to
- 4 talking of expensive
- 5 That's outrageous
- 6 I bet that's nice
- 7 in reality
- 8 remembering foreign names
- 9 that reminds me
- 10 can't have been

---

VIDEO SCRIPT

---

- Yvonne So, what did you do last night?
- Nicholas I went to the cinema with a friend of mine to see this new film called 'Chat Room'. Do you know it?
- Yvonne I've heard of it. Yeah, of course. I've seen the big posters everywhere on buses and buildings. I haven't seen it, though. It's a kind of horror film, isn't it?
- Nicholas Well, it's supposed to be, yeah. It's about these teenage kids who end up in this Internet chat room and just kind of drive each other crazy by chatting to each other and then they all end up doing really terrible things. I thought it was going to be really terrifying, but it was just stupid. The plot was just so unbelievable and the special effects just looked a bit silly. Honestly, it really didn't live up to the hype.
- Yvonne Oh no! You must've been really disappointed.
- Nicholas Yeah, we were. And it was expensive too.
- Yvonne Oh, by the way, talking of expensive ... did I tell you I've moved house?
- Nicholas Again? I thought you only just found a place you liked recently?
- Yvonne I know. I did, but my landlord decided to put my rent up by nearly 60%, so I had to move out again and find somewhere else.
- Nicholas That's outrageous! Is he allowed to do that kind of thing? Isn't there a law about it or something?
- Yvonne I don't know, but he did it!
- Nicholas That's awful. You must be really annoyed.
- Yvonne I am! I could've killed him. But I decided to move instead!
- Nicholas So, where have you moved to?
- Yvonne It's a smaller place, actually, but it's much cheaper. Only €60 a week, and not too far from here, so I can walk in and out every day, which is great.
- Nicholas I bet that's nice.
- Yvonne Yeah. Lovely.
- Nicholas Anyway, what about you? What did you do last night?
- Yvonne Well, in reality, I spent the whole evening cleaning my new place, which was totally boring, but to practise, let's say I went out with some friends.
- Nicholas OK. Where to? For example, I mean.
- Yvonne Well, we went for dinner first, which was good. We went to this new Thai place by the river.
- Nicholas Oh yeah? What's it called?
- Yvonne Oh, I'm useless at remembering foreign names.
Nid Tang? Nid Yang? Something like that anyway.
- Nicholas And what was it like?
- Yvonne Oh, great. Really good. I ate loads, though. I was absolutely stuffed by the end. I couldn't eat another thing.
- Nicholas Oh, by the way, that reminds me. I'm having some people over for dinner next Friday, if you'd like to come.
- Yvonne Yeah. Maybe. I'll need to check my diary and see if I have anything planned, but thanks for asking me.
- Nicholas And what about the rest of your imaginary evening, then?
- Yvonne No, it's a real evening. Just not my evening last night.
- Nicholas OK. So?
- Yvonne Well, after eating, we went for a drink and then we went clubbing and I stayed out later than I was planning to. I didn't get home until maybe after three and then I had to get up really early as well. I'm feeling really rough.
- Nicholas Ugh! 'That must not have been fun'. Is that right? 'Must not have been'?
- Yvonne No. 'That can't have been fun', I think.
- Nicholas Right. Yes!