Can do

I can talk about the weather.

I can write 'weather' words.

I can talk about where I was yesterday.

1 Read and order the pictures.

It was Saturday yesterday and the weather was very bad. It was cold and windy and there was a lot of snow. Daisy and Peter were at home all day but there was some good music on the radio.

It was 'Marching Song' by a composer called Prokofiev. In this piece of music a group of children are walking in the snow. Then they start playing. They make snowballs and throw them at their friends.

The weather's better today. It's cold, but sunny. The children can play in the garden. Daisy's wearing a hat and coat and Peter's wearing a big sweater and his favourite scarf.

There's a lot of snow on the ground and Peter and Daisy are making a snowman. Peter's making a big ball of snow for its body and Daisy's making a smaller ball for its head.

The snowman's wearing a hat on its head and a long scarf round its neck. It's got two small rocks for its eyes, five small rocks for its mouth and a carrot for its nose. It's called 'Prokofiev'.

Review Units 7 and 8

1 Read, colour and draw.

Look at the animals. On the island there are two bears. The bear with the fatter stomach is brown and the other bear is grey. Can you see the snakes? The green snake is longer than the yellow one. In the cave there are two bats. The black bat is smaller than the grey bat. There are two birds in the trees. They're parrots. The red parrot is louder than the yellow parrot.

There are two whales in the sea. The blue whale is bigger than the black and white whale.

There's a boat near the island. Draw a man in the boat. He's wearing a coat and a scarf. He's very hot. The man is looking at the fruit in the trees on the island. He's hungry.
